This Weeks Laugh

Dave and Mabel were on their way to the Gold Coast when they were flagged down by a man whose truck had broken down.

“Are you going to the Gold Coast?” the driver asked Dave.

“It’s just I’ve got two chimpanzees in the back which have to be taken to the Gold Coast Zoo.

“Could you possibly take them for me? I’ll give you $100 for your trouble”

“No worries, mate,” said Dave.

So, the two chimpanzees were loaded into Dave’s ute and off they went.

Five hours later, the truck driver was back on the road driving through the Gold Coast when suddenly struck by a horrific sight. There were Dave and Mabel walking down the street holding hands with the two chimps, much to the amusement of the crowd.

The truck driver pulled off the road and ran over to them.

“What the heck are you doing here?” he demanded. “I gave you $100 to take these chimpanzees to the zoo.”

“Yes, I know you did,” said Dave, “but we had money left over, so now we’re taking them to Sea World”

BOOSTER SHOTS

Health Care Australia (HCA) will attend YH on Thursday 16th (this week) to administer COVID-19 booster shots to residents and staff. This will be conducted in the library. Staff will escort you to and from the library, there is no need to make an appointment.

CAFÉ IN THE GARDEN

Cappuccinos with scones, jam and cream always draw a crowd to the Yack Café on Friday mornings, but we had an extra special treat to look forward to on Friday.

Residents and their families were able to relax in the garden as Ruth and Shelly played the flute and harp.

BEST WISHES DEE

Well wishers were aplenty to wish much loved EEN Dee Murray all the best as she commenced maternity leave on Thursday. Dee promises to keep us updated on her little bundle of joy’s arrival which is due on December 21st.
