The Week That Was

Christmas Party at Yack Health

The weather couldn't have been better for the Residents Christmas Party on Thursday. The lawn of the Café Courtyard was sprinkled with partygoers soaking up the sunshine, enjoying great company and listening to Pete Denahy and our very own Men's Choir.

A big thank you goes to Doug and Lofty who manned the BBQ, providing us with a delicious lunch that was enjoyed by all.

We even had a visit from Santa Claus himself, handing out chocolates along his travels. We would like to thank everyone involved in making the day so enjoyable, it really was a fantastic, fun day. We value our opportunity to provide quality activities and look forward to exciting new adventures together next year, we can't wait!

We will take a short break with the newsletter to enjoy some quality family time and will have the next edition to you on Tuesday 4th January. May your Christmas be happy and blessed, with the true meaning of Christmas shining brightly in all your hearts.

This Weeks Laugh

An old man lived alone in Ireland. He wanted to dig his potato garden, but it was hard work.

His only son, who would have helped him, was in Long Kesh prison.

The old man wrote a letter to his son and mentioned his predicament.

Shortly after sending the letter, the father received a reply from the son, which said "For heaven's sake dad, don't dig up the garden, that's where I buried the guns."

At four o'clock the next morning, a dozen British soldiers showed up with shovels and dug up the entire garden.

They found no guns.

Confused, the old man wrote another note to his son telling him what had happened.

His son's reply was: "Best I could do from here. Now plant your potatoes."

They met on line
