

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Italian National Day

Italian National day was celebrated in style on Wednesday 2nd June with all things Italian. We enjoyed working on craft projects and decorating leading up to the day then enjoyed listening to Italian music whilst cooking up a yummy Italian lunch consisting of home-made lasagne which was followed up by an affogato dessert. There were also Italian quizzes to learn a little about this magnificent country.

Second round of Covid-19 vaccines arrive at Yack Health

On the 4th June residents who had consented to having their Covid-19 vaccinations had their second dose of Pfizer after receiving their first dose on 12th May.

The day ran very smoothly with residents very keen to get the vaccination.

For those who had their first dose on the 4th June, health services Australia will come back to provide your second dose in 3 weeks. I'm sure we can find the chocolate stash again to help take our mind off the injections.

Restrictions update

Unfortunately we remain in lock down until midnight on Thursday night. We will update residents and their families of any changes on Friday 11th June. In the meantime if you would like to stay

There are plenty of fun ways to keep busy at Yack Health. Come along and join in the fun!

This week's laugh!

Senior Moment

Two elderly people are living in a retirement home, he was a widower and she a widow, and had known each other for a number of years. One evening there was a community supper in the big arena in the Clubhouse. The two were at the same table, across from one another. As the meal went on, he took a few admiring glances at her and finally gathered the courage to ask her, 'Will you marry me?'

After about six seconds of 'careful consideration,' she answered 'Yes. Yes, I will!'

The meal ended and, with a few more pleasant exchanges, they went to their respective places.

The next morning, he was troubled. 'Did she say 'yes' or did she say 'no'? He couldn't remember. Try as he might, he just could not recall. Not even a faint memory. With trepidation, he went to the telephone and called her. First, he explained that he didn't remember as well as he used to. Then he reviewed the lovely evening past. As he gained a little more courage, he inquired, 'When I asked if you would marry me, did you say 'Yes' or did you say 'No?'

He was delighted to hear her say, 'Why, I said, 'Yes, yes I will.' and I meant it with all my heart.' Then she continued, 'And I am so glad that you called because I couldn't remember who had asked me.'
