The Week That Was

Footy Tipping

We are heading into Round 11 of the AFL Footy Tipping round and the competition is fierce. Judy Brindley is leading the Lorna Anderson Footy Tipping competition on 64 points, followed by Max Norris on 61 points, and Peter Wiltshire on 59 points.

Meanwhile, in the staff & family competition Genelle is leading on 62 points with Marcus and Joel (Bron's husband) only a game behind on 61 points, then Ian on 60 points.

We have a few tough games to choose this week so I am sure we will have an interesting week of tipping coming up – stay tuned!

THIS WEEKS LAUGH

Late one night a man is driving down the road, speeding quite a bit. A policeman notices how fast he is going and pulls him over. He says to the man, "Are you aware of how fast you were going?"

The man replies, "Yes I am. I'm trying to escape a robbery."

The policeman gives him a sceptical look and says, "Were you the one being robbed?"

The man casually replies, "No, I committed the robbery."

The policeman looks shocked that the man admitted this. "So, you're telling me you were speeding...AND you committed a robbery?"

"Yes," the man calmly says. "I have the loot in the back."

The policeman begins to get angry. "Sir, I'm afraid you have to come with me." He reaches into the window to take the car keys out of the ignition.

"Don't do that!" the man yells fearfully. "I'm scared you will find the gun in my glove compartment!" At this point the policeman decides to call for backup.

Soon policemen, cars, and helicopters are flooding the area. The man is cuffed quickly and taken to a police car. However, before he gets in, another policeman walks up to him and says, while pointing to the policeman that pulled him over,

"Sir, this officer informed us that you had committed a robbery, had stolen loot in the trunk of your car, and had a loaded gun in your glove compartment. However, we found none of these things in your car."

The man replies, "Yeah, and I bet that liar said I was speeding too!"

This Weeks Laugh

A man goes to a bar and asks: "Seven double whiskey shots, please". The bartender arranges the seven whiskeys in front of him and sees the man drink one by one almost as quickly as they were served. In disbelief, the bartender asks:

"Why so fast?" and the man replies: "You'd drink this fast too if you had what I have." The bartender asks: "What do you have, mate?" The man quickly replies: "One dollar!"

A Fisheries officer is walking along a beach one morning when he spots a man with a bucket of lobsters. The officer walks up to the man, flashes his badge and says, "You're in big trouble, buddy. Poaching lobsters is a serious offence."

The man answers, "You've got it all wrong, these lobsters are my pets! Every morning I take them out for some exercise. I let them swim around in the ocean for a few minutes and then whistle them back in."

The officer looks at the man sceptically and says, "Okay then, prove it." The man proceeds to throw the lobsters into the ocean and both he and the officer stand there waiting. After a couple of minutes, the Warden looks at the man and says, "That's long enough, now whistle your lobsters back in."

The man turns to the Warden and says "Lobsters? What lobsters?"
