The last Friday of each month the men gather for some Fish & Chips from the Top pub, a beer, wine, or soft drink and just a good old chin wag and I might say a couple of good jokes. Last week the men were joined by one of the Directors from Apollo Wayne Knapp, and Community Manager Emma Atkin.

Bruce came for a visit today with our Residents, Pepita introduced him to Heather before the Prayer Service This morning. Jean enjoying the Sensory Garden. Bev enjoying the autumn sunshine.

Residents enjoyed lunch with the Chef this month which was sausages, mashed potato and peas with caramelized onions, followed by apricot and apple steamed pudding with ice cream.

*Don't cry for me when I am gone, Celebrate the life I lived.
Celebrate that I am gone to a better place.
No more suffering, no more pain.
Now I can walk, now I can talk.
Now I can see my friends that went before me.
Don't cry for me, not even when I am gone.
My world is not over, it has just begun.
Celebrate the fact you knew me.
Celebrate the times we shared.
Celebrate our joys, our love of life.
For I am in a music better place.
Don't cry for me, until I am gone.
Don't cry for me, not even then.
But cry for your lose of a friend.
Cry for the sorrows you feel,
Make room for the joys to remember.
Don't cry for me, I won't cry for you.
Not until you are gone, not even then,
I will be waiting to see you again my friend.
When you cross the stairway to heavens gates.*
