I have only slipped away into the next room.
I am I and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other.
That we are still.*

PADSIP 2024

The inaugural meeting for the 2024 Intergenerational program was held on Tuesday with lots of children from Yackandandah Primary School and volunteers catching up with our residents to plan this years program.

It was an immense honor to have Commander John DeBomford, his wife Jo, Captain Lucy Chambers and Private Courtney Boyle as distinguished guests at the ANZAC service held yesterday at Yack Health. Their presence served as a reminder of the sacrifices made by our servicemen and women. Their unwavering commitment to duty and the values of courage and resilience they embody, are a testament to the enduring spirit of the ANZAC's. We express our sincere thanks to them for sharing the morning with us and for their service to our country. Additionally, we would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to all who attended the service, as your presence truly encapsulated the spirit of remembrance and unity that defines ANZAC Day. Together, we honor and remember those who have served and are serving and who sacrificed for our freedom.

Anzac Day falls on the 25th of April each year. The 25th of April was officially named Anzac Day in 1916.

On the 25th of April 1915, Australian and New Zealand soldiers formed part of the allied expedition that set out to capture the Gallipoli peninsula. These became known as Anzacs and the pride they took in that name continues to this day.

The Anzacs landed on Gallipoli and met fierce resistance from the Ottoman Turkish defenders. Their plan to knock Türkiye out of the war quickly became a stalemate and the campaign dragged on for eight months.

At the end of 1915, the allied forces were evacuated. Both sides suffered heavy casualties and endured great hardships. Over 8,000 Australian soldiers were killed.

The meaning of Anzac Day today includes the remembrance of all Soldiers killed in military operations.

Boy aged 4: Dad, I've decided to get married.
Dad: Wonderful; do you have a girl in mind?!
Boy: Yes... grandma! She said she loves me, I love her, too....and she's the best cook & story teller in the whole world!! 😄
Dad: That's nice, but we have a small problem there!!
Boy: What problem?!
Dad: She happens to be my mother. How can you marry my mother!!
Boy: Why not?! You married mine!!!!

How to baffle a spell checker. lol
 If you can read this OUT LOUD you have a strong mind.
