THE WEEK THAT WAS 1st June – 7th June 2024

Over the last week we have had COVID enter our facility, unfortunately a few of our residents have tested positive. In accordance with health guidelines, those affected will remain in isolation for 7 days to attempt to prevent any further spread of the virus. We are closely monitoring their health and wellbeing and providing all necessary care and support. The safety and wellbeing of our residents and staff remain our top priority, and we appreciate your understanding and cooperation during this time.

We ask that if you wish to visit your loved ones, we prefer you utilize our outdoor areas for visits, prior to entering you will be required to provide a negative COVID test and while you are in the facility you will be required to wear a N95 facemask at all times, we ask that you practice hand hygiene by washing and sanitizing hands prior to visiting as well as during your visit. If you are unwell, please consider postponing your visit until you are well again.

"WHY ENGLISH IS HARD TO LEARN"

We'll begin with box: the plural is boxes, but the plural of ox is oxen, not oxes. One fowl is a goose, and two are called geese, yet the plural of moose is never called meese. You may find a lone mouse in a house full of mice; but the plural of house is houses, not hice. The plural of man is always men, but the plural of pan is never pen. If I speak of a foot, and you show me two feet, and I give you a book, would a pair be a beek? If one is a tooth and a whole set are teeth, why shouldn't two booths be called beeth? If the singular's this and the plural is these, should the plural of kiss be called keese? We speak of a brother and of brethren, but though we say mother, we never say methren. Then the masculine pronouns are he, his, and him; but imagine the feminine.... She, shis, and shim.

Jokes of the Week

A Little 10-year-old girl was walking home, alone, from school one day, when a big man on a black motorcycle pulls up beside her. After following along for a while, turns to her and asks, "Hey there little girl, do you want to go for a ride?" "NO!" says the little girl as she keeps on walking. The motorcyclist again pulls up beside her and asks, "Hey little girl, I will give you $10 if you hop on the back." "NO!" says the little girl again as she hurries down the street. The motorcyclist pulls up beside the little girl again and says, "Okay kid, my last offer! I'll give you 20 Bucks "and" a Big Bag of Candy if you will just hop on the back of my bike and we will go for a ride." Finally, the little girl stops and turns towards him and Screams Out... "Look Dad" "You're the one who bought the Honda instead of the Harley ...YOU RIDE IT!!"
